1. Committee Reports:

Gary – PGAA

The next PGAA meeting will be November 16.

The Finances are in good shape.

The golf tournament may change location as they are not happy with the current location's food.

Ross - Master Glazier

The Second Course, Doors and Hardware Installation, will be ready soon. It will be 32 hours of course time.

The first running of this course is expected in early spring.

A Head Subject Matter expert will be appointed for all future course development to keep the team on track.

More money will be required to finish the development of the Master Glazer Program.

The next course will be Specialty Glass.

Clint – SAIT

Edmonton Class updates:

3rd year – 3 spots available

1st year – 5 spots available

4th year – 8 spots available

Joe - Financials

It was year-end for the GTA and the association lost $431 dollars last year. This is better from the year before when $817 was lost.

Surprisingly the GTA golf tournament made $330 dollars this year.

Twenty three memberships have already been paid for the current year. Approximately 12 still outstanding.

2. Old Business - No old business

3. Guest Speaker:

Jay Summach- Director of Education for the Edmonton Construction Association.
